

Friday 29th November 2024, 1.15pm

Fang-Lin Liu (Piano)

Taiwanese pianist, Fang-Lin Liu recently finished her Master's degree at the Royal Academy of Music under the guidance of William Fong after having achieved a First Class degree for her bachelors. During this period, she has committed to giving performances at churches throughout the UK and participating in competitions. She enjoys taking part in chamber music groups, performing with singers, collaborating with dancers, and working with composers. She recently took part in the Leeds Lieder Festival as a Young Artist, performing in several showcase recitals and masterclasses. During the week in Leeds, she gave the first ever performance of "She Walks the Blue and Yellow Lands" at the Composers & Poets Forum.

In 2018, Fang-Lin received a scholarship and commenced her Bachelor's degree at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland (RCS), where she studied under Aaron Shorr. During her studies in Scotland, she won the Jock Holden Memorial Mozart Prize at the conservatoire and performed Mozart Concerto No. 24 with the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland Chamber Orchestra. She achieved second place in a number of RCS competitions: the Governors Recital Prize, the William Leslie Meikle Piano Prize and the Peter Lindsay Miller Prize for Piano Duo.

She was born in 2001 and started playing the piano at the age of 5. In 2015, she won first prize in the Los Angeles Gold Star Young Pianist Competition, and the next year she moved to the UK and studied, with a scholarship, at the Purcell School for Young Musicians under the tutelage of Tessa Nicholson. During this period, Fang-Lin performed at the Fazioli Concert Hall in Italy, the Southbank Centre in London, and during the Proms at St Jude's Church in London. She is a keen and ambitious pianist who enjoys collaboration with others, and is eager to continue her musical odyssey.